Mr. Johnson is still turning loose in Illinois.

It was Gen. Nogi, and not the young Emperor, who killed himself over the death of the old Emperor of Japan.

Louisiana has passed a law that provides that shoes containing mat-terials other than leather shall be so labeled. Of course the shoe men will kick.

During the last 30 days 14 marriage licenses were issued to Mc-Cracken county couples and 19 divorce petitions were filed, 15 of them by dissatisfied wives. In the words of a Hopkinsville philosopher, Fletcher Campbell, "More marries than does well."

Gen. Nogi, the Japanese hero, who committed suicide willed his body to a medical college stipulating that only his teeth, finger nails and toe nails were to be buried. Maybe the superstitious old warrior expected to get into some place where he might want to scratch out.

Chairman Camden has invited all of the Democratic editors in the state to meet in a conference with the campaign committee at the Tyler Hotel, Louisville, Sept. 28. The editors will be Mr. Camden's guests for the day. A permanent organization of the Kentucky Democratic Editorial Association may be formed.

Puzzle Paragraph.

Most of the good little schoolboys are tickled to death over the one session plan, since it gives them several hours in the nice warm afternoons to cut weeds in mother's garden while the bad boys are swimming in the river. The puzzle is to find the good little boys.

Repels Attack Of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col.
"They told me I would die with consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for to-day I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." Its folly to suffer with coughs, colds or other throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Another Maine Commission.

President Taft may soon have to appoint a commission to discover whether Maine was blown up from the inside or the outside.—Ex.

She Was Smothering

Rockford, Ala.—Mrs. M. C. Paschal, of this place, says: "I was taken with nervous prostration, and had headache, backache, pains in my right side, and smothering spells. I called physicians to treat my case, but without relief. Finally, I tried Cardui, and it gave perfect satisfaction. I recommend it to every sick woman." Are you weak, tired, worn-out? Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women? Cardui has a record of over fifty years in relieving such troubles, and will certainly benefit you. It prevents those frequent headaches, and keeps you up, out of bed, feeling happy. Try Cardui.

Some Real Fighting.

Mexican Federal troops won a costly victory near Oaxaca in routing 4,000 Indians. The Government forces lost forty-one killed and the rebels 150 killed and several hundred captured. In retreating, the rebels burned many bridges and hanged several merchants.

Glorious News

comes from Dr. J. T. Curtiss, Dwight, Kan. He writes: "I not only have cured bad cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is a most effective blood purifier. Its an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength.
Price 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Six Drowned, 5 Missing.

Six naval apprentices from the United States Naval Training Station at North Chicago were drowned in Lake Michigan yesterday and five are missing. Twenty-four apprentices accompanied by an officer were on a pleasure cruise in a sailboat when the accident occurred.

To Mothers---And Others.

You can use Bucklen's Arnica Salve to cure children of eczema, rashes, tetter, chafings, scaly and crusted humors, as well as their accidental injuries,—cuts, burns, bruses, etc., with perfect safety. Nothing else heals so quickly. For boils, ulcers, old, running or fever sores or piles it has no equal. 25 cts. at all druggists.

Tight Skirts Outshow Tights.

The death of an actress in Chicago recalls the "Black Crook" which twenty years ago was some show, but which today wouldn't be considered bad form at all.—Ex.

without a jar, shock or disturbance, ease of nature's movement, and so do those who take Dr. King's New Life Pills. No griping, no distress, just thorough work that brings good health and fine feelings. 25 cts. at all druggists.

traction J. A. Coburn's Greater Minstrels is coming with all new company, the latest songs, the newest music, the cleanest comedy and the best entertainers he has ever carried. Everybody knows Manager Coburn, everybody has seen his big rollicking, laughing show, his merry comedians, his excellent singers, and you know it's GOOD, CLEAN, musical, enjoyable and always returns bigger, better and with new people and new features. Don't forget the

JUST HABIT OF OBSERVATION

Wonderful Feats of Trailing, Which Excite So Much Interest, Are Thus Explained.

The truth is, that without a knowledge of woodcraft one would soon perish in the wilderness, and woodcraft is simply Sherlock Holmes work applied to wild life, a matter of observation and deduction, writes Dan Beard in Leslie's. If a man finds a lot of hair adhering to a trunk of a tree he knows it did not grow there and he is safe in assuming that no man took the trouble to stick it there. Thus he arrives at the conclusion that some animal has been scratching itself on the tree.
But in order to tell what animal has been there he must be familiar with the hair belonging to all the inhabitants of that section. Not until then can he say that a deer, a moose, a puma or a wolf, as the case may be, rubbed its side against the tree trunk. Of course, if there's snow on the ground the tracks of the animal will aid him in identifying the creature. Again, if the day is absolutely calm and the sun is shining and he notes that the dead leaves have been displaced and their damp sides turned uppermost or that the damp sides of the pebbles are exposed, he reasons that they have recently been disturbed and concludes that some animal disturbed the leaves or pebbles.
In fact all the apparently wonderful feats of trailing are based primarily upon a trained habit of observation.

GIVE A LIFETIME

Smudge—I hear that old Crookerly was given "the time of his life" yesterday.

Grudge—Yes, the judge sentenced him to life imprisonment.

DAD JOINS IN.

The daughters of the household, ardent suffragists, were talking politics.

"Taft will sweep the country," declared Mabel.

"Wilson will sweep the country," asserted Maud.

"Roosevelt will sweep the country," averred Margaret.

At this point dad took a hand.

"Never mind about who's going to sweep the country," said he.
"Who's going to sweep this here kitchen? That's the question now."

IN A MISANTHROPIC MOOD.

"I am honest, intelligent, discreet, industrious and capable of making friends," said the young man who was looking for employment.

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum, "you ought to get along; although I have seen a lot of men go before conventions with those same recommendations and fail to get more than a complimentary vote."—Washington Star.

EVERY MAN.

"Some philosopher has said that no young man ever expects to die."

"Well, what about it?"
"I was just thinking that some philosopher might also say that every man expects to get rich through an invention of some kind."

A GOOSE, ALL RIGHT.

Bacon—I see a goose in Harrisburg, Pa., escaped from a farmer's wagon, flew down the street, and alighted on an electric arc light wire. The current was on, and the goose dropped to the ground dead.

Egbert—It seems superfluous to tell us that it was a goose.

WHERE DID HE LEARN THIS?

"Do you always play fair, by little boy?"

"Not always. If I can get the advantage of Jimmy I take it. But I always make Jimmy play fair with me, though."

and tells in a simple and interesting way of the discoveries of scientists, the achievements of inventors, the feats of engineers and explorers, and the opening of every new field of human endeavor. What Jack London says—"I have just chanced upon my first copy of TECHNICAL WORLD MAGAZINE. There isn't anything like it. I want more, and I cannot wait for them to come, so I am sending you herewith check for which please enter my subscription and send me immediately the last two years' back numbers."
